

Go Dutch in the Hudson Valley!

Discover Dutch-American history by using free audio tours in your smart phone

Go to the App Store, Google play or Windows Phone Store
and download the free app
of izi.TRAVEL,
and the audio tour
'How Dutch is New York?
– The Hudson Valley Tour'
and get going! The tours, also free, are in English and Dutch.

The Hudson Valley Tour

izi.TRAVEL
the storytelling platform

* In Albany, Kingston, and New Paltz you'll find separate tours in the app, all starting with 'How Dutch is New York?' In those cities you'll get glimpses – and sometimes more than that! – of how life in the colony used to be, including contacts with the original inhabitants and enslaved African people.

There are similar tours in New York City, Schenectady, and the Mohawk Valley. For more information and direct links go to www.dutchheritageworldtours.nl

Vander Veen's
www.TheDutchStore.com

Holland delivered to your door

This program is supported as part of the Dutch Culture USA program by the Consulate General of the Netherlands in New York. Grants were also received from the Society of Daughters of Holland Dames in New York and the Dutch-Culture matching fund in the Netherlands.